PLACES OF INTEREST.

THE STATE PRISON at Wethersfield, is three miles south of the city. It accommodates something over 250 prisoners, and can be visited on week days between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. The admission is 25 cents a person.

THE ALLYN MEMORIAL CHAPEL is at the entrance to Spring Grove cemetery, 901 Main street. The Northam Memorial Chapel is at the entrance to Cedar Hill cemetery.

THE ATHENÆUM on Main street is a historical structure. In the north half is a library, and in the south half another library and the historical rooms containing many specimens, the history of which is closely allied to the state itself.

TRINITY COLLEGE is on the brow of a high cliff in the south-western part of the city, and from it a fine view of surrounding country can be obtained. The terminus of the Retreat avenue horse car line is at the base of the hill.

CHARTER OAK PARK, one of the finest, if not the best, driving track in the country, is three miles south-west of the city, and can be reached by way accommodation trains on the New England road.

HISTORY OF BACCHUS.—This figure of Bacchus was carved from a log of pine in the old Windham jail, at Windham, Conn., by British prisoners of war, who were confined there in 1776. It is said to have been done with their jack-knives—the only tools allowed them. These prisoners were captured by the Americans in Long Island Sound. They were on the British ship, the Bombrig, captured June 10th, 1776, and brought to Windham as prisoners of war. This singular effigy or image

BACCHUS. of Bacchus was purchased of Mr. Cummings by its present owner in 1859, and was brought to Hartford in 1872. It is now a century old, and all lovers of the curious, as well as those who have been familiar with its peculiar workmanship in former years, are cordially invited to examine it, at No. 387 Main street.

ART NEEDLE-WORK PARLORS of Miss M. E. Cooley, 17 and 19 Pratt street, are well worth a visit. The latest novelties are exhibited and a cordial welcome is extended to all.
